What's YOUR TRUTH right NOW?

The most important "study findings" there is... is the one that results from consulting our own truth.

PERSONAL SESSION

Get to the root of an issue. Release a self-defeating pattern.
Free yourself to live the life you want!

Frank Gjata

As a life coach (and a frequent participant of The Hendricks Institute trainings) I've personally witnessed amazing life-changing transformations of many people (including myself) in short periods of time—sometimes in just a matter of minutes! I was so inspired I decided to put together a book of people's life-changing moments, exploring common themes that could end up being “life changing” for others. I've taken these elements and combined them with the tools I've learned for rapid transformation and share them with my clients. The simplest, most powerful shift I've found is to acknowledge our truth in the moment...We then are led to what wants to be healed or transformed.

I now offer this personal ONE ON ONE “acKNOWLEDGE IS POWER! Life-Changing Moment” session. My intention is to co-create a life-changing moment in THIS SESSION together and to provide you with an experience and tools so you can do the same on your own AT WILL! Where are you stuck in your life—relationships, work, money? There's no need to suffer to realize meaningful and lasting change— that's completely optional! Suffering itself doesn't lead to change, but its potential side effects can—surrender, acceptance & non-defensiveness. Why not take the direct route? It's a lot quicker and considerably more enjoyable. As we heal ourselves, we indeed heal the world.

“Change can happen in an instant. I've experienced it! My life has not been the same since the first time I sat in his chair. Frank loves what he does and he is a master of it!”
